

RECAP ZONE

-  Big and tall plants are called trees.
-  Shrubs have thin, woody stems which grow from near the ground.
-  Herbs are green plants with soft stems.
-  Climbers are weak plants which need support to stand straight.
-  Creepers are weak plants which grow along the ground.
-  Plants prepare their food with the help of air, water, sunlight and chlorophyll.

Revision Zone

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

1. Which plant has thin, green and soft stems?
 (a) Mint (b) Neem (c) Coconut
2. Which plant has no branches?
 (a) Rose (b) Coconut (c) Mango
3. Which plant grows along the ground?
 (a) Cotton (b) Rose (c) Pumpkin

B. Write two examples of each of the following:

1. Trees
2. Shrubs
3. Herbs
4. Climbers
5. Creepers

C. Write 'T' against the plants that are trees, 'H' if they are herbs, 'S' if they are shrubs and 'C' if they are climbers.

1. Grass
2. Neem

- 3. Grapevine
- 5. Coconut
- 7. Mint

- 4. Rose
- 6. Money plant
- 8. Pea plant

D. Answer the following questions.

1. Which type of plants lives for many years? Name any one.

.....

2. Why do some plants need support to grow?

.....

3. How do plants make their own food?

.....

HOTS

The leaf is called the kitchen of a plant. Why?

Creative Zone

A. Project

Fun with leaves

Collect leaves of different shapes and sizes. Put them in between the pages of your book to dry. Now use them to make the sketch of different animals.

